

Create your Own HUMANS OF ST. LOUIS STORY-PHOTO ALBUM

After learning more about Humans of St. Louis and how they go about their interview process, it is your turn to capture the stories of your own community!

Use this photo album to collect pictures, artifacts, and stories.

You can have friends mail you a photo of themselves and write a note on the back.

You can take photos of family and write down stories about them on the next page.

You can collect tickets, receipts, fortune cookies, or drawings and jot down notes to explain why they are meaningful to you.

There is no right or wrong way to capture and present the stories of your community.

To learn more about Humans of St. Louis, visit their website at www.humansofstl.org